

A Few Spare Moments

By Glenn Currier

Isn't it a shame
that I can only spare
a few moments with you in-between all the really important things
I have to do.
I tell myself I don't HAVE to take this time with you when every time I do take time I am energized and revitalized.
Do I not have enough time for that?

Time time time
energy energy energy...

How I count the costs
of relationship
and not its treasures!
