

Godsmile :*)

By Glenn Currier

Look up in the sky
it is a bird, it is a plane it is the sweet fresh rain it is the clouds that fly.

Look down at the ground it is a caterpillar, it is an ant it is a green springing plant and creepy crawlies all around.

Look inside of you it is enthusiasm and hope it is the broader deeper scope the rousing breakthrough.

It is a : an * and an arc
It is a Godsmile with a spark :*)
