

Saturated

By Glenn Currier

Here we are again
in the presence of green Life all around us
You saturate everything
It is good to be here with you alive on Earth
I cannot leave you
even if I wanted to
But who would want to?
Those who live in pain
who wake up again and again in darkness
who cannot see who - try as they might - cannot be awake
and alive in you.
I ache for them
and I can enter their darkness only because I am saturated with you
still alive.
